

CV/RESUME
DR. ALICIA J. CAMPI

ADDRESS: 6002 Ticonderoga Court
Burke, VA 22015
PHONE/FAX: 703-451-6456
E-MAIL: USMAGCAMPI@aol.com
DATE OF BIRTH: November 23, 1949
PLACE OF BIRTH: Trenton, N.J., USA

EDUCATION:

Mongolia State University Ulaanbaatar, Mongolia	1990	Post-doctoral Mongol language study (1 st U.S. student)/IREX grant
Indiana University Bloomington, Indiana	1976-87	Ph.D. in Mongolian Studies
U.S. Dept of State Chinese Language School Taipei, Taiwan	1983-84	Certificate in Chinese Proficiency
Chinese Language School of Nanyang University Singapore	1980-82	Chinese Certificate
Chinese Language Program Fu Jen University Taipei, Taiwan	1974-75	Chinese Certificate
Harvard University Cambridge, Massachusetts	1971-73	M.A. in East Asian/ Mongolian Studies
Smith College Northampton, Massachusetts	1967-71	A.B. Far Eastern History
Princeton University Princeton, N.J.	1969-70	Critical Language Program in Chinese
Middlebury College Middlebury, Vermont	1969	Chinese Language School Certificate

ASSOCIATIONS:

Board of Directors, The Mongolia Society
North American-Mongolia Business Council
Mongolian-American Cultural Association
Association of Asian Studies
International Association for Mongolian Studies
American Center for Mongolian Studies
Women Diplomats of Washington

AWARDS:

"Friendship" Medal presented by President Bagabandi of Mongolia in July 2004.
First "Distinguished Graduate of Hopewell Valley Central High School" Award in March 2003.

WORK EXPERIENCE:

- President/Executive Director, U.S.-Mongolia Advisory Group December 1991-
Burke, Virginia
Speciality: all types of consulting work on Mongolia re roads, telecommunications, environment, energy, education, development/privatization, and commercial issues for the Dept. of State, U.S.-Asian Environmental Partnership, Radio Free Asia, and private U.S. and western organizations.
- Adjunct Professor, The Washington Center, Washington, D.C. January 1996-
Speciality: teach evening courses on the Pacific Rim since 1800 and contemporary U.S.-Asian relations.
- Executive Director/Vice President, Northeast-Inner Asia Associates May 2006-
Arlington, Virginia
Speciality: provide consultant services on regional issues in the Northeast Asia, Mongolia, and Inner Asia, especially re energy, business, and
- Research Coordinator, Immigration Policy Center April 2004-
Washington, DC
Speciality: research and writing on immigration/visa policy issues especially re Asians; find academic authors; arrange seminars and supervise publications for an immigration thinktank.
- President, Chinggis Khan Foundation July 2002-
Burke, Virginia
Speciality: charity non-profit devoted to supporting Mongolian programs in the areas of education, environment, arts/culture, and Mongol Studies.
- President, Central Asia-Mongolia Association May 2004-2006
NYC, Indiana, and Virginia
Speciality: provide consultant services on regional issues affecting Mongolia and Central Asia.
- Chief Executive Officer, Fusion Technology, Inc., Maryland October 1998-2005
Specialty: consulting for company working with Japanese clients in the waste management field to market technologies in environmental remediation to U.S. and foreign companies.
- Library Resource Manager Consultant, National Vaccine April 1998-March 2003
Information Center, Vienna, Virginia
Speciality: created, catalogued and computerized a medical vaccine library for this independent non-profit. Participated in fund-raising for the project and successfully raised $195,000.
- Project Manager and Executive Director for Mongolian November 1995-
Operations, GMS Corporation, Fairfax, Virginia July 1996
Speciality: handled all types of export marketing and procurement of spare parts and equipment for European and Asian clients.

Second Secretary for U.S. State Dept. March-August 1990
 U.S. Embassy, Ulaanbaatar, Mongolia
 Speciality: conducted special educational project; Acting Press and Cultural Affairs Officer; negotiated Peace Corps program in Mongolia.

Advisor to the Dept. of State in the 1987-1989
 U.S. Mission to the United Nations, New York, N.Y.
 Speciality: served on Special Political Committee, Committee for the Peaceful Uses of Outer Space and Information Committee, Chinese Specialist for the U.S. Mission, conducted negotiations with Chinese Ministry of Aeronautics and Astronautics on UN-related issues.

Second Secretary/Vice Consul for Dept. of State 1984-1987
 U.S. Embassy, Tokyo, Japan
 Speciality: In Visa Section handled all Chinese and terrorism cases. Negotiated the establishment of diplomatic relations with Mongolian Embassy counterpart.

Chinese Language Student, American Institute in Taiwan 1983-1984
 Taipei, Taiwan
 Speciality: full-time advanced Chinese language student at State Dept.'s Chinese Language/Interpreter School on Taiwan.

Taiwan Desk Officer, American Institute in Taiwan Office, 1983
 Washington, D.C.
 Speciality: handled cable traffic for Taiwan while doing Ph.D. dissertation research at U.S. National Archives.

Third Secretary, U.S. Embassy, Singapore 1980-1982
 Speciality: full time attendance in Nanyang University Chinese School during the academic year, and summers acting as special assistant to the Ambassador for economic research.

Instructor, English Dept., Fu Jen University, Taipei, Taiwan 1975

Administrative Assistant, Dept. of History, Harvard University 1973-1974
 Cambridge, Massachusetts

LANGUAGES:

English – native; Chinese – fluent in reading, writing, speaking; Mongol – fair in reading and speaking; Japanese –some reading and speaking knowledge; French – reading knowledge; Manchu – some reading knowledge; Latin – reading knowledge; German – poor reading knowledge.

COMPUTER SKILLS: Windows 2000, MS Office, Excel, Powerpoint, Netscape, Internet, QuickBooks

PUBLICATIONS AND SPEECHES: List of over 50--available upon request.